

Do you have my major and can you tell me anything about the program?

Would I have extra academic support if I needed more than the daily classes.

Will we have study hall our freshman year

What is the team graduation rate? Do most members of the team graduate on time?

How successful is the team?

Who would be my primary coach?

Is it an endurance based or speed based training program?

What would be expected of me as a freshman? Performance-wise.

Is there a nutritionist for the team that helps them with their diet?

How many days a week for weight training?

Do we live in a dorm room or suite style housing?

What do I need to do to qualify for a partial or full scholarship. What test scores and GPA help me qualify for more money?

How often do athletes come home throughout the school year?

What's your coaching background working with other sprinters?

Plus any other questions you think of.